ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc. not intended for permanent record.]

Reasons for the representation that I may be started on Rs 400 the maximum pay of the II class Special Magistrate.

1. I entered service in February 1904 along with Messrs S. Hiriyanna, C. Ranganatha Rao Saheb, N. Rama Rao, D. K. Rama Rao and G. Srinivasa Iyer who are all drawing Rs 500 or more. The present prayer for the grant of Rs 400 to me is not too highly pitched ~~extravagant~~

2. By fixing my pay at anything less than Rs 400 in the Judicial Department I would become junior to Munsiffs Messrs Satyaji Rao and S. Venkata-Krishnaiyar who are juniors to me in service

Dear Sir

When taking leave of the Dewan Saheb on my transfer from the Secretariat, I had occasion to represent to him the several points urged in my representation now pending order of Government. I referred in particular to the hardship that would be caused to me by the present change from one sedentary appointment to another when I expected in the ordinary course a transfer to the revenue executive Service. The Dewan Sahib was pleased to observe that aspect of my case deserved fair consideration and as directed by him I submit the same to you demi officially for being placed before Government for favourable order.

Yours sincerely
B. Narasimhamurthy.

Serial No.

(1) Mr. B. Narayanaswami Iyengar, Registrar, General and Revenue Secretariat, has been selected for one of the appointments of Second Class Magistrates under the Scheme of the Separation of the Judicial and Executive Functions.

(2) He is now an Assistant Commissioner of the V class on a pay of Rs.250 and his promotion to the next grade is due on the 26th February 1919. In the Secretariat he is also in receipt of a local allowance of Rs.50.

(3) He has made a representation that he may be given the maximum pay of the Magistrates' grade viz., Rs.400. He is also willing to accept a permanent transfer to the Judicial Department. By such transfer to the Judicial Department he will be losing his prospects of rising to Rs. 450 the maximum pay of an Assistant Commissioner.

(4) Mr. Narayanaswami Iyengar is a graduate in Law and will prove quite suitable for permanent service in the Judicial Department either as Magistrate or Civil Judge. His request may therefore be favourably considered.

(5) The matter is submitted for orders. It may be considered at the next Council meeting.

7) Drawing allowance in England applies only when Govt does not give any claim to continue to enjoy them when such are given to officers.

8) Comparing Flat pay + £4 suitable few months hence - which no doubt claim may pay - to the post to which the applicant is hoping is not reasonable in this.

9) Granting such requests may create embarrassments

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to Chief Secretary. CS 189-18-1

In expressing my thanks to Government for having selected me for the place of a Special Magistrate in connection with the new - Scheme for the Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions, I beg leave to submit for your kind support and favourable recommendation to Government the following representation:-

1. My service as Registrar, General and Revenue Secretariat extends over a period of 8 years during which my best efforts have been given to the satisfactory discharge of the multifarious duties of my office both at Head Quarters and at Mysore on Special Duty in connection with Birthday and Dasara Festivities.

2. Practically throughout the period I have been drawing a pay of Rs. 250/-. In addition, I have been in receipt of a local allowance of Rs. 50/-. My increment as Assistant Commissioner accrues in about two months time from now and if I remained in the Secretariat till then my total emoluments would be Rs. 350/-.

3. My long stay in my present sedentary work as Registrar has affected my health and the transfer in prospect would only be to another sedentary post involving heavy work at the desk without the benefit of the local allowance I am now in receipt of.

4. In view of the above circumstances and also of my long, untiring and onerous service in the Central Office, I beg that I may be given the maximum pay of a Junior Magistrate which would be only Rs. 50/- in excess of what would be due to me in my present post two months hence and thus enabled to befit myself, by better comforts, for the new work.

5. To avoid any technical objections to the grant of my request I am willing, if necessary, to accept a transfer to the Judicial Department.
